Visitors to Jamestown.

In spite of the fact that the warships, which constitute the main attraction at the Jamestown exposition, have gone away to stay for two or three weeks, the travel from this city to the exposition is becoming very heavy, and will necessitate additional boats to handle the throng when the rummer sea-son opens and the vacation travel to the big show begins. The travel from the exposition to this city is also very heavy, and the steamers arriving here each morning are filled to their capacity. The unusually large number of tourists in the city is shown by the large throngs which each day visit Mount Vernon by water on the steam-er Charles Macalester, the boat being well filled on both morning and afternoon trips.

The exercises were opened with prayer by Rev. Robert M. Moore, pastor of the Foundry M. E. Church, and Surg. Gen. Rixey's address followed. He reviewed the history of the science of nursing as applied to the care of the sick and injured, and spoke of the evolution in training of nurses, leading up to the high standard of modern times. He declared the importance of the nurse, in relation to the care of the patient; is second only to that of the physician, and he paid a special tribute to the class graduating from Garfield Hospital.

Nurses for the Navy. Referring to the great need for trained nurses in the navy, Admiral Rixey said: "I hope in the near future to offer to woman nurses service in the care of the sick and injured in the navy, and if the advice of the bureau of medicine and surgery had been taken, the sick of the navy at shore stations and in the naval hospitals would several years ago have had the valuable aid of woman nurses. It is well for me to say, as chief of that bu-reau, realizing full well what trained nursing means to the sick, how sadly nurses are 'I have for more than four years urged upon five different Secretaries of the Navy and, with their permission, upon Congress, our great need. My action on this question has been so persistent and forceful that I cannot see how we failed; but so it is today that we are urgently in need of trained men and women nurses, and as I have so often explained to those upon whom the decision rests, how this absence of proper nursing means suffering for those who are unable to help themselves.

"The officers and enlisted men enter the navy with the assurance that they will be taken care of when sick or injured. The government supplies accomplished physicians and surgeons, with splendidly equipped hospitals and facilities on every ship for the proper care of those sick or injured; in fact, an up-to-date equipment.

None of these have we at present, whereas the army has had all three for many years. James R. Garfield, Secretary of the Interfor, made an address, in the course of which he spoke of the great good accomplished by trained nurses.

"We laymen know what it is to have a thoroughly competent nurse come to our bedsides, or to some sick member of our families, and do more than medicine," he said. "The nurse brings with her a new confidence, a cheerful spirit and hopefulness."

Cartridge Failed to Explode. To the fact that a cartridge in a revolver held by Clarence Burton, colored, failed to go off when the trigger was pulled James Bailor of 2143 Stevens court probably owes his life, and because he is alleged to have pulled the trigger, Clarence Burton was a prisoner in the Police Court today charged with assault and with carrying a weapon. The trial of the cases was continued until Monday to obtain more witnesses. The men, it is explained, had a dispute regard-

Restraining Order Issued. Justice Barnard has issued an order restraining William F. Dailey from in any way interfering with his wife Charlotte Dailey, who yesterday filed suit for a limited divorce in the District Supreme Court. Mrs. Dalley, through Attorneys Barnard and Johnson, states that the marriage oc-curred October 31, 1896; that her husband is a habitual drunkard, and that he has never contributed toward her support.

PIMPLES And Blackheads Prevented and Cured by Cuticura.

Gently smear the face with Cuticura Ointment the great Skin Cure, but do not rub. Wash off the Ointment in five minutes with Cuticura Soap and hot water and bathe freely for some minutes.
